

Robert Bruce Stenhouse

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

Skills include the ability to provide both creative and practical solutions to architectural design. High-end abilities in computer drafting, SketchUp and graphic enhancements for presentations, renderings and models. Ability to create both computer-aided and hand-drafted drawings.

EDUCATION

Master of Architecture, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, 2002
Bachelor of Arts, English Literature and Economics, Denison University, Granville, Ohio, 1993

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Architect Intern, Daryl S. Rantis, Architects, PA, Asheville, June 2004 – present
Architect Intern, Progressive Architecture & Design, Asheville, April 2003 – June 2004
Carpenter, Company 1230, Asheville, June 2002 -- November 2002
Teacher/Graduate Assistant, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, 2000-2002

ARCHITECTURAL SKILLS

- Broad experience in creating architectural designs from conceptual to construction drawings.
- Project management of single-family residential units and custom residential designs.
- Wide variety of computer-aided design skills such as AutoCAD 2000, VectorWorks, FormZ, CorelDraw, PhotoShop, MS Office Suite. Also experienced with MicroStation and Adobe Illustrator.
- Accomplished in hand drafting, hand rendering and sketching.
- Proven ability in creating models of varied materials and scales, for practice and presentation.

CONSTRUCTION KNOWLEDGE

- Experienced in design/build projects on different scales: barns, decks, residential additions.
- Knowledge of environmentally conscious materials and construction techniques.
- Site supervision and construction management experience.
- General knowledge of codes, restrictions and governmental processes involving construction.